Beginning February 1st, 1920

MACLEAN'S MAGAZINE enters on a new stage with the February first issue, 1920. From that time on it will be published twice a month—on the first and fifteenth. It is expected that, within a reasonably short period, it will be possible to make the magazine a weekly. Such is the ambitious through behind he forthcoming charge.

The use of Williams' is not a mere habit. It is the constant repetition of a deliberate choice, based on experience and satisfaction. Three quarters of a century ago men began to buy Williams'. They kept buying it because it never failed to yield the same rich, velvety lather, because it did not dry on the face, because it left behind a feeling of complete comfort and well-grooming.

The cream in the big tube is just one of the handy ways to get this famous lather.

After the shave or the bathyou will enjoy the comforting to of William's Tale Powder,
